

Our Correspondents.

Glennon

The glorious Fourth is over. Still hot and dry. If it don't rain soon we won't raise much corn in this community.

Joe Vandeven is thrashing wheat in his community. The quality and yield are reported good.

There was a tomb stone agent in this section of the county a few days ago.

John Horrell says if it don't rain soon he is going to move to some place where it does shower occasionally.

Miss Anna Bookamp is visiting at Cape Girardeau a few days.

Several of our young folks celebrated the Fourth at Advance. News is scarce, so I will quit.

Mayfield

Health is reasonably good. Farmers are about done plowing corn.

J. H. Mayfield and family visited relatives at Sedgewickville Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Anaziah Cook and Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Mayfield and their families visited at David Greene's Sunday.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mayfield June 28, a fine boy baby.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Mayfield visited at M. B. Green's Sunday.

Our Sunday school is progressing nicely.

A protracted meeting will begin here the third Sunday in August. Revs. Buckner and Gaitner of Zalma will conduct the services.

Candidates have been very numerous in our vicinity the last week. We hoped they would bring us a shower of rain, but they didn't.

Our people celebrated the Fourth at Sedgewickville, Patton and Lutesville. All report a good time.

MAYFIELD IRE.

Patton

The crop of candidates is ready for the garner. Let us hope none will be overripe before the harvest, which will take place August 4.

The people are talking of hanging Quint Harmon as a false prophet. It didn't rain the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. Doc O'Kelley of St. Louis are visiting here this week. We are glad to report that Doc arrived in time to pitch a winning ball game for Patton boys the Fourth, the score being 13 to 6—a decided skinning for the Bullfrogs.

John Sharrock, who had a leg amputated, has returned from the hospital and is doing nicely.

Mrs. Jesse Crow of Cape Girardeau is visiting old friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Myers, who have been visiting his father, Riley Myers, departed the first of the week for their home at Stilwell, Kansas.

Mr. and Mrs. Doc Robinson of Cape Girardeau are visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity.

Riley Myers, who has been quite ill for some time is reported better. Uncle John Linton has been slightly ill for several days, but is able to be out again.

BAD—WORSE.

Zalma

As I haven't seen anything in THE PRESS from this part of the country for awhile, I thought I would send in a few items.

The weather is hot and dry and everybody is wishing for rain.

The stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wolsey a few nights ago and left a fine 11½ pound girl. Mother and babe are getting along nicely.

Constable Webb went fishing Friday and caught a 20-pound carp and also a nice cat.

Mrs. Charles King returned home a few days ago from Cape Girardeau where she had a surgical operation performed and is getting along fine.

I saw Mr. Doggett repairing the Huff property a few days ago and he made such a change in the looks of the building that I asked some questions found that he had purchased the property from Mr.

FOR BABIES
For Teething Babies, for Summer Complaint, for Looseness of the Bowels, for Colic, for hot weather, for Diarrhoea from overfeeding and for Indigestion.

McGEE'S
BABY ELIXIR
Is an Effective Remedy.

Children that are cross, feverish and restless from diarrhoea, colic, or any discomfort in the bowels soon become contented and comfortable after using this excellent preparation. It contains nothing injurious; no opium, no morphine or narcotic drugs of any kind. It is a fine pleasing syrup that babies take willingly. Good for grown-ups as well as children. It is greatly liked by ladies because of its agreeable taste and effectiveness in all bowel complaints.

Price 50c per Bottle.

Huff. They will trade in this vicinity and don't raise any fuss about it.

We had a grand time at our picnic Saturday celebrating our independence day and also had good order and plenty to eat and drink. The dinner was served by Frank Boyer. We had friends from all part of the country and were glad to meet them. We had Attorney George E. Conrad from Marble Hill and Mrs. John Huff from Coldwater, also some friends from Poplar Bluff, Bloomfield, Kennett and Cape Girardeau. The friends were treated most courteously and accommodated with all kinds of refreshments and entertainments. We had a steam swing and a vaudeville show and all had a good time. We invite our friends to come again, as we are pleased to meet with them and have them with us.

JAKE.

Gravelton

Health is fairly good. Several of the young folks from Gravelton spent the Fourth at Marquand.

The children's day exercises at Oak Dale were well attended Sunday. Everybody reported a nice time.

The people in this town are hustling around to get a few berries. They are small, but everybody wants his share.

Mrs. Dan Robins and daughters, Misses Ode and Effie, and Alonzo Choat attended Children's day at Oak Dale Sunday.

Miss Ettie Clubb visited Miss Silva Howard Saturday.

Rube Abernathy of Grassy was in Gravelton Friday.

We are sad to note the death of David Whitener. The bereaved family have our sympathies.

Success to THE PRESS.

TWO BLUE-EYED CHUMS.

Lodge

The weather is still hot and dry, and it just keeps getting drier.

A large crowd attended the picnic at Marquand Saturday and all seemed to enjoy themselves just fine.

Millard Lawrence returned home from St. Louis Thursday.

Prayer meeting was well attended Sunday night.

I understand that some of the old people took their Fourth on the river, fishing and say they had a nice time, and I hope they did.

Oliver Hahn helped James Priddy in his hay Monday.

I understand the people all gave Aunt Jane Sitze a birthday dinner Sunday. A large crowd was present and all had a nice time.

Miss Ina Priddy, who has been staying at Fredericktown, returned home the 4th to spend a few weeks. She and her father were in Marquand Monday on business.

News is scarce and, with good luck to THE PRESS and its readers, I'll quit.

TRACE CREEK GUY.

Leopold

After a long rest I will try and give a few happenings from our town.

Health is very good. Stacking wheat and making hay is the order of the day.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Herman H. Elfrink, July 4, a fine girl.

Uncle John Debrock is on the puny list with bilious fever.
